

Clément MAYEUR, MS

Clément Mayeur has over 15 years' experience in corporate finance. He began his career in the audiovisual sector, at Orange Sport channel when it was created, and then at TF1 where he worked on mergers and acquisitions of production companies. At the same time, his career was enriched by entrepreneurial experiences that exposed him to the dynamics of business creation and development.

After several years as financial manager and then financial director in an international environment, he became shared financial director, specialising in the MedTech and Biotech sectors.

He brings to the company the knowledge he has acquired in corporate finance and in setting up a rigorous financial organisation.

He holds a master's degree in business finance from Paris Dauphine University and the University of Reading, a postgraduate diploma in intellectual property from Paris Sorbonne University and a specialisation in corporate finance from EDHEC Business School.
